Arapahoe County Investigates Shooting

On June 28, 2013, at approximately 1:02 a.m., deputies with the Arapahoe County Sheriff's Office responded to the Arapahoe County Treatment Center (ACTC), located at 3265 West Girard Avenue, in unincorporated Arapahoe County, on the report of shooting that had just occurred. ACTC is a contracted Community Corrections Facility for the Colorado State Department of Corrections. Preliminary investigation revealed that a gunman entered the facility and began shooting at occupants located inside.

During the incident, two individuals were injured and are being treated at area hospitals. Reports at this time indicate that their injuries are not life threatening. At this time, it appears the suspect may be a client who previously walked away from the facility

The investigation is in the preliminary stages at this time. More information will be released later today.

Update - SUSPECT IDENTIFIED

Upon further investigation into the incident, a suspect and suspect vehicle have been identified as:
