MEDIA RELEASE

SHERIFF'S OFFICE INVESTIGATING INMATE DEATH

On Monday, April 28, 2014, Arapahoe County Sheriff's Office deputies arrested a suspect identified as:

Hasley, Eric Terrell
Age 51

Mr. Hasley was contacted as a result of a call of a suspicious person hiding in a neighborhood. When contacted, Mr. Hasley was uncooperative and showing signs of intoxication. Mr. Hasley received medical treatment at a local hospital, where he was cleared for admission to the Detention Facility. Mr. Hasley was subsequently booked into the Arapahoe County Sheriff's Office Detention Facility and charged with Assault in the Second Degree, Violation of a Protection Order, and Obstructing Government Operations.

During a routine check in the morning of April 29, 2014, a deputy noted Mr. Hasley was breathing, however the deputy was unable to wake him up. Immediate assistance was provided by Detention Facility medical staff and he was transported to a local hospital. He was pronounced deceased by hospital staff at 7:22 p.m.

Mr. Hasley's death is being investigated by the Arapahoe County Sheriff's Office and the Arapahoe County Coroner's Office.

Additional information will be provided as details are available.

For additional information contact Bureau Chief Glenn Thompson at 303-435-4277.
