Arapahoe County seeks representative within the cities of Englewood, Sheridan and Littleton to serve on Cultural Council

Residents with an interest in the arts should apply by Dec. 4

Littleton, Colo. — The Arapahoe County Board of County Commissioners is seeking applications from residents who are interested in serving on the Cultural Council as a representative for the cities of Englewood, Sheridan Littleton.

Qualified applicants must reside or own property in Arapahoe County and must reside in the city where representation is needed. The application deadline is Dec. 4, 2015.

The Cultural Council is responsible for distributing funding from the metro-wide Scientific and Cultural Facilities District sales tax to qualified non-profit organizations and local governments. The Council prepares a recommended distribution plan and forwards the recommendations to the Board of County Commissioners for review, ratification and submittal to the Scientific and Cultural Facilities District Board of Directors for final funding approval.

Interested candidates should be aware that in addition to regular meetings, the months of April and May require intensive participation (one meeting per week for six or seven weeks) by members, as well as all funding applications must be read and evaluated, followed by in-person interviews between the Cultural Council and the applicants.

To apply, visit www.arapahoegov.com and go to Government > Citizen Boards and Committees. Applications also are available at the Commissioners' Office in the Administration Building, 5334 S. Prince St., Littleton, CO 80120. For more information or to have an application mailed or faxed to you, call Carol Dosmann at 303-795-4531.
