Denver Regional Council of Governments honors transportation manager Arapahoe County's Bryan Weimer presented with Distinguished Service Award

DENVER, CO --- Transportation Division Manager Bryan Weimer received a Distinguished Service Award from the Denver Regional Council of Governments. The award was presented by DRCOG Board Secretary Bob Fifer at the organization's annual awards celebration April 26.

Weimer has participated on DRCOG transportation planning committees for 30 years. He is a longstanding member of DRCOG's Transportation Advisory committee and has joined ad-hoc for projects such as the Transportation Improvement Program and the Regional Transportation Plan.

"Bryan Weimer has contributed to transportation planning in our region over the last three decades," said Doug Rex, DRCOG's acting executive director. "He has helped to shape mobility in our area as it has grown and changed, and we're thankful for his continued leadership in tackling new challenges."

Weimer also was recognized at a public hearing by the Arapahoe Board of County Commissioners May 2. Board Chair Nancy Sharpe and commissioners offered their gratitude for Weimer's knowledge, leadership and lasting impact on transportation in and around Arapahoe County.

The American Public Works Association recently designated Weimer as a Leadership Fellow, teaching and mentoring public works professionals in the Donald C. Stone Center for Leadership Excellence in Public Works.

DRCOG presents Distinguished Service Awards to individuals who make significant contributions to the Denver region and its communities, and to DRCOG's programs and activities. The regional council has been honoring outstanding achievements for more than 30 years.
