A/D Works! Opportunity Works taskforce hosting landlord forum Free educational forum for landlords Sept. 12

CENTENNIAL, CO – Arapahoe/Douglas Works! a proud partner of the American Job Center Network, is hosting a free landlord education forum.

The forum, hosted by the Opportunity Works Taskforce, will be held 7 p.m., Sept. 12 at the Arapahoe Douglas Workforce Center, Arapahoe Board Room, 6954 S. Lima St., Centennial, 80112.

The forum will be focused on what landlords need to know, particularly in a competitive housing market. Landlord resources, subsidized housing, rent subsidies, landlord and tenant rights, landlord roles and responsibilities and other topics will be discussed. Landlords are invited to register at <https://fs8.formsite.com/adworks/form107/index.html>.

“More than 75 community providers and advocates met last year and identified the lack of housing is one of the largest barriers to employment,” said Commissioner Nancy Jackson, who represents District 4 and chairs the Opportunity Works taskforce. “Landlord education can help more people find housing and protect landlords.”

The Opportunity Works Taskforce is a subcommittee of the Arapahoe/Douglas Workforce Development Board, which is dedicated to identifying and promoting workforce development strategies to positively impact the economic well-being of the region. Opportunity Works concentrates on working with low-income individuals with barriers, including attaining accessible and affordable housing.

The Arapahoe/Douglas Works! Regional Workforce Center is located at 6974 S. Lima St., Centennial 80112. Workforce Centers also are located in Littleton and Aurora. For more information on Arapahoe/Douglas Works! and Future U, call 303-636-1260 or visit the A/D Works! website at www.adworks.org.
