Arapahoe County seeks citizens to serve on Retirement and Denver Metro Scientific and Cultural District boards

Littleton, Colo. – The Arapahoe County Board of County Commissioners is seeking applications from residents who are interested in helping their community by serving on the County's Retirement Board and the Denver Metro Scientific and Cultural Facilities District Board.

Qualified applicants must be residents of Arapahoe County, and there is one vacancy for each board.

Applications are being accepted through Nov. 13, 2017.

Retirement Board

The Retirement Board is a five-member board that is responsible for approving all withdrawals from the plan (vested and non-vested), retirements and expenditures related to investment management, administration and consultant fees.

The Board is responsible for recommending if and when changes should be made to the plan based on information provided by consultants. Members have the authority to hire and terminate service of investment managers, administrators and consultants; as well as review investment performance, the annual audit report and the actuarial reports.

Meetings are held 1:30 p.m. the fourth Wednesday of each month in the County's Administration Building 5334 S. Prince St., Littleton. The term length for this appointment is four years, per Colorado Statute.

Scientific and Cultural Facilities District Board

Arapahoe County is a member of the Scientific and Cultural Facilities District and the Board is responsible for the receipt and distribution of the one-tenth of 1 percent sales tax distributed to art, cultural, scientific and historical organizations.

The Board reviews and sets the District's policies and budget, oversees the Tier I and II funding applications and reports, reviews and approves the Tier III County funding plans.

Meetings are held Thursdays throughout the calendar year, along with an extra meeting for the Board

Retreat. The term length for this appointment is three years with a consecutive two-term limit.
