Nancy Jackson is serving her third term as Commissioner representing District 4, which includes the unincorporated area in north Arapahoe County and portions of the City of Aurora.

Nancy's primary goal is to represent her constituents and be a voice at the table to promote effective policies that maintain and improve County services. Her priorities include preserving the environment through Open Spaces, encouraging entrepreneurship and livable wage employment opportunities, supporting public safety and criminal justice reform, providing adequate behavioral health services, partnering with community and civic organizations and educating the community about County services.

As Commissioner, Nancy oversees the Human Resources and the Public Works and Development departments. She serves on the County's Executive Budget Committee.

Nancy represents the County's interests on a variety of boards and committees. She serves on the Colorado Counties Inc. General Government and Justice and Public Safety Committees, and on the National Association of Counties Health Steering Committee.

Other committees include:

- Arapahoe County Foundation Board of Directors
- Arapahoe/Douglas Regional Workforce Development Board
- Aurora Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors
- Aurora Mental Health Center Governing Board and Behavioral Healthcare
- Board of Social Services
- Cherry Creek Basin Working Group
- Colorado Courthouse Security Governing Board
- High Line Canal Working Group
- Housing Authority
- Justice Coordinating Committee
- Metro Area County Commissioners
- Rocky Mountain Crisis Partners

Nancy was honored by the Aurora Chamber of Commerce as 2015 Woman of the Year for her contributions to the Eastern Metro area.

Nancy has a Ph.D. in Communication, a Master's degree in Counseling and a Bachelor's degree in Psychology from the University of Colorado. She has taught in various positions at several colleges and community colleges, including five years as an assistant professor at Clemson University and 20 years at the Community College of Aurora. She wrote and published a number of professional papers during her teaching career.

Nancy also established a consulting business in 1996, creating communication programs for major corporations, small businesses and the Armed Forces. She owns a property management company based in Arapahoe County. She is a Colorado native and lives in Aurora. She has three children and three grandchildren.
