Deputy Rich Haight has worked at the Arapahoe County Sheriff's Office since 2002. He spent two years serving in the Detention Facility, 12 years on patrol and three years as a school resource officer (SRO).

Q: What would you tell a student, parent, or staff member about keeping their school safe?

Deputy Haight: Be aware of your surroundings. Students and staff are key to letting law enforcement know when they believe something may be going on. Students need to know they can approach their SRO, school staff or a trusted adult to report unusual activity.

Q: What do you enjoy the most about being an SRO?

Deputy Haight: I enjoy the positive interactions with the students, staff and the community. As SROs, we are in a unique position to mentor and counsel students in a way that can have a positive impact on young lives, which also creates an environment where the community benefits.

Q: What is your biggest accomplishment?

Deputy Haight: I grew up in eastern Colorado and am now able to work in the schools that had such a positive impact on my professional and personal life.

Q: What is your favorite hobby?

Deputy Haight: Camping, fishing, and spending time with family.
