Deputy Mark Keaney started his career in 1992 and has been a school resource officer (SRO) since 2016. He serves at Endeavor Academy. During his time on the force, he was a firearms instructor for 23 years and served on the SWAT team 17 years.

Q: What advice do you give parents and students about school safety?

Deputy Keaney: Report suspicious activities, take any verbal threat(s) seriously and follow school procedures during drills. Together, we can keep each other safe

Q: What do you like about being an SRO?

Deputy Keaney: I enjoy interacting with the kids in a positive environment whether it be talking, shooting hoops or attending their talent shows.

Q: What's your biggest accomplishment?

Deputy Keaney: My favorite accomplishment? Being a dad, kicking cancer's butt, SWAT accomplishments.

Q: What is your favorite thing to do?

Deputy Keaney: My favorite hobby is boating and fishing with my kids. I love getting them outdoors and seeing them do something they like to do.
