Deputy John Gray has been in law enforcement since 2010. He has been a school resource officer (SRO) since 2015. He has also been on the SWAT team as a negotiator since 2014.

Q: What would you tell a student, parent, or staff member about keeping their school safe?

Deputy Gray: To maintain a safe school, it requires a team effort from law enforcement, school staff, students and community members. It's important to report information to law enforcement when necessary so it can be adequately and appropriately responded to.

Q: What do you enjoy the most about being an SRO?

Deputy Gray: I like having the ability to really see the difference we make in schools.

Q: What is your biggest accomplishment?

Deputy Gray: My family is my favorite accomplishment personally, and professionally would be becoming a hostage negotiator and an SRO.

Q: What is your favorite hobby?

Deputy Gray: Spending time with my family, painting, drawing and hunting, fishing and camping.
